Welcome to the HTTP Workshop.

- HTTP Community - implementers, specifiers, practitioners
- Open Discussion - invited talks to start conversations, not provide one-way information
- Unique Opportunity - people who otherwise might not interact
- NOT a decision-making body.

Outcomes

- Better communication
- Insight into what's happening in standards, implementations, and deployments
- Feedback to the standards process

How it Works

- We've invited a few prepared talks to start some conversations
- Other topics can and will come up
- We depend upon your participation in the discussion to make this valuable.

Code of Conduct

The HTTP Workshop is dedicated to providing a harassment-free experience for everyone, regardless of gender, gender identity and expression, age, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, ethnicity, religion (or lack thereof), or technology choices.

We do not tolerate harassment of participants in any form. Sexual language and imagery is not appropriate for any conference venue, including talks, workshops, parties, Twitter and other online media. Participants violating these rules may be sanctioned or expelled from the Workshop at the discretion of the Program Committee.
